Selected Projects

1-800-DELIVR-ME
Interactive Design
Spring 2025

An interactive sculpture transforming a rotary telephone into a confessional booth, fostering an invisible, transient link between strangers and enabling viewers to contribute to an artificial web of shared human connection

While We Were Dreaming
Full-Stack Website
Fall 2024

A location-based web platform designed to bridge the emotional gap caused by NYU's open-city campus. Students pin anonymous memories to physical coordinates, creating a decentralized archive of the student community

Remedium Pro Damnatis
Artist's Book
Spring 2025

A sculptural book posed as a pharmaceutical ritual, exploring the consumption of "hard truths" and the futile attempts to prolong an inevitable ending through artificial remedies

Pink Elephant
Narrative Manuscript
Spring 2024

A linked-vignette narrative that examines the cyclical nature of loneliness and the formation of queer identity within rigid social frameworks through the use of a central motif

Assessing GPT-4's Efficacy of Biomedical Abstracts
Research Paper
Spring 2024

A group research study investigating the gap in accessible biomedical research for non-English speaking communities by analyzing the efficacy and hallucination risks of GPT-4 in translating complex abstracts
